

- Effective leaders ensure successors.
- Effective leaders empower the people around them.
- Effective leaders help those around them climb to new heights.
- Effective leaders consider those around them as partners and sees to it that everyone shares in the rewards.
- Effective leaders set their goals high and strive to contribute to the enrichment of the entire group.
- Effective leaders work to actualize their dreams..
- Effective leaders practice what they preach; they lead the way by example.
- Effective leaders earn respect and do not command it.
- Effective leaders see things through the eyes of those around them.
- Effective leaders work not for their ways to be carried out, but for the best way to be identified and followed.
- Effective leaders are open-minded and consider all things with equal consideration.
- Effective leaders take initiative.
- Effective leaders set plans in motion.
- Effective leaders recognize when the time calls for them to lead and when to follow.
- Effective leaders have faith in people; they trust them, believe them, and work to draw the best out of them.
- Effective leaders give credit to others, while taking credit only when credit is due.
- Effective leaders are not afraid to laugh at themselves.
- Effective leaders work to strengthen their strengths and ask for help with their weaknesses.
- Effective leaders are not all about business.